

Lillian E. Rix <sup>8-8-92</sup>

Lillian E. Rix, 94, Groton, died at the Colonial Manor in Groton, Wednesday, July 22. The funeral was held at the United Methodist Church in Groton Saturday, July 25. The Rev. William Duncan officiated and burial was in the Groton Union Cemetery.

Lillian Walter was born April 16, 1898, at Alma, Wis., to Robert and Anna (Gueltzow) Walter. She came to Groton with her parents in 1906. They moved to a farm in Riverside Township. She graduated from Groton High School in 1917 and attended Dakota Wesleyan University at Mitchell for two years. She taught school in Riverside Township from 1919 to 1922. She married Floyd A. Rix at Waubay on October 13, 1922, and they moved to a farm in Riverside Township where they lived all their married life.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church in Groton, a charter member of the Three R's Reading Club and she served as a Democratic committee woman for many years.

She is survived by two sons, Gerald Rix, Groton, and William Rix, Groton; one grandson, Roger Rix, Groton, two granddaughters, Mrs. Fred (Elaine) Wolken, Groton, and Mrs. Larry (Teresa) Enze, Sioux Falls; six great grandchildren and three step great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, one infant daughter, two brothers and two sisters.

Casketbearers were Don Henley, Richard Ruden, Robert Schuelke, Emery Sippel, Wayne McCullough and John Clark.

The organist was Marlyce Cassels and the soloist was the Rev. William Duncan. The ushers were Earl Ruden and Earl Lowary.